

Helping you get around East Lothian by train

East Lothian's railway stations are the gateway to a multitude of destinations!

Waverley

From here you can access the whole of Edinburgh. You can walk to many city centre attractions. Frequent bus and tram services are available on Princes Street and taxis are just outside the station.

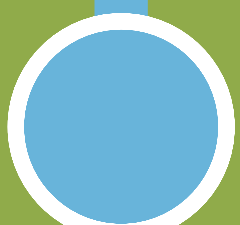

Musselburgh

Outside the station hop on a Lothian Buses service 30 (10 mins frequency daytime), to get to Newhailes House. Don't forget to visit the beach and harbour, Inveresk Lodge Garden or the Brunton Theatre. Queen Margaret University is close to the station.

Wallyford

Alight here for Musselburgh Racecourse and enjoy free buses between the Park and Ride facility and racecourse on race days. Buses from here take you to many East Lothian destinations. Catch a 106,113 or 124 bus towards Edinburgh, alight at the first roundabout (just over 1 minute journey time). Cross the road and travel on a 26 to Seton Sands to visit the Prestongrange Industrial Heritage Museum.

Prestonpans

Scotland's mural town. Start your Mural Trail here with the restored murals on the platform. Walk to the site of the Battle of Prestonpans (1745) from the south (Edinburgh bound) platform. The East Coast Main Line crosses the battlefield! Preston House, Hamilton House and the Mercat Gait centre are close by.

Longniddry

A 15 minute walk north takes you to Longniddry Bents, or there is a Railway Path to Haddington (4 miles), 300m east of the station.

Drem

Get the Eve's 121 bus from here, or Prentice 111 bus to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh from the village green, to Fenton Barns retail village, 3 minutes away. A 1 mile walk takes you to Chesters Hill Fort.

North Berwick

There are numerous tourist attractions in and around North Berwick. In summer East Coast Tours run an open top bus to the Scottish Seabird Centre, Tantallon Castle, the NB Gin Distillery, Preston Mill, East Linton (all also served by Eve's 120 bus) and the National Museum of Flight, Scottish National Flag Centre, Chesters Hill Fort, Fenton Barns Retail Village (all served by Eve's 121 bus, except Chester's Hill Fort). Dirleton Castle is served by East Coast Buses 124 and X5 from the end of the station platform. Walking tours are available locally.

Dunbar

Dunbar has many attractions within walking distance of the station, including the Town House and Museum, John Muir Birthplace, and Dunbar Leisure Pool. The John Muir Way starts here. Buses towards Edinburgh (from the end of Station Rd) reach John Muir Country Park, East Links Family Park and Foxlake Adventures.

Please check train and bus timetables before starting your journey. scotrail.co.uk lothianbuses.com eastcoastbuses.co.uk eveinfo.co.uk prenticeofhaddingtpn.info
Comments or complaints about rail services should be directed to: ScotRail Public Relations, PO Box 27129, GLASGOW, G2 9LH.

East Lothian Community Rail Partnership forms a link between rail companies and the communities they serve, including residents, local organisations and local businesses. If you have suggestions as to how your journey can be improved or for improvements to your station contact eastlothiancrp.org.uk. Pick up a line guide at North Berwick or Dunbar stations for even more East Lothian destinations.

